

Name _____

Name _____

Sharing Vs. Repeated Subtraction

Problem A:

Terrence is making bags of party favors. He has 36 dinosaur stickers. If he puts 9 stickers in each bag, how many bags can he fill?

Problem B:

There are 9 children at Lily's party. When the piñata broke, out fell 36 candies! How many candies does each child get?

Name _____

Problem C:

Melissa found 42 seashells at the seashore. She brought them home to give to her 6 best friends. How many seashells should she give to each of her friends?

Name _____

Problem D:

Jessica and Juan baked 42 cookies. 6 cookies fit in a box. How many boxes can they fill?